

Travel & Learn Program

Success in Endodontic Therapy

Sunday, April 1 - Friday, April 6, 2007 • Beijing, China

SUCCESS IN ENDODONTIC THERAPY

Ilan Rotstein, DDS

Ilan Rotstein is a Professor of Endodontics at the University of Southern California School of Dentistry in Los Angeles. He is Chair of the Division of Surgical, Therapeutic and Bioengineering Sciences and Associate Dean for Continuing Oral Health Professional Education at the USC School of Dentistry. He is member of the Executive Leadership Team of the USC School of Dentistry and Ambassador Member of the University of Southern California. Dr. Rotstein is currently the President of the Southern California Academy of Endodontics, Chairman of the Research Committee of the International Federation of Endodontic Associations and Scientific Reviewer for the Journal of Endodontics. He served on the Research and Scientific Affairs Committee of the American Association of Endodontists and has been serving on editorial boards of several national and international dental journals. Dr. Rotstein has published over 100 scientific articles and research abstracts in the dental literature as well as chapters in international endodontic textbooks. He has lectured extensively both nationally and internationally in 20 countries throughout 4 continents.

Synopsis

The art and science of endodontics are undergoing many exciting changes. Recent advances in technology, biomaterials and equipment make the contemporary practice more predictable, efficient and with successful outcome for the patient. This course includes updates on current topics in endodontics and designed to provide knowledge and tools to better evaluate endodontic cases and perform evidence-based endodontic treatment with more predictable results and greater patient acceptance.

Topics to be covered

- Factors affecting endodontic treatment outcome
- Diagnosis and treatment planning
- Case selection in Endodontics
- Endodontic-periodontal interrelationship
- Root canal cleaning and shaping
- Nickel Titanium rotary instrumentation
- Procedural errors and their prevention
- Endodontic retreatment
- Endodontic considerations of traumatized teeth

Upon completion participants should

- Enhance their knowledge of the clinical and biological concepts of modern endodontics
- Know how to apply system-based approaches and state-of-the art technology for treating endodontic cases
- Know how to use endodontic rotary instruments safely and effectively
- Understand the indications and apply appropriate techniques for endodontic retreatment
- Be able to approach endodontic cases with confidence and enjoy more predictable results

PRIME HOTEL, BEIJING, CHINA

There is no other city in China like Beijing (Peking), where you can discover so much magic, from its glorious ancient past to its exciting modern development. Your experience starts at your "home" in Beijing, the luxurious 5-star Prime Hotel, which combines the best state-of-the-art amenities with traditional hospitality of a bygone imperial age. Its guest rooms are all equipped with free internet access, satellite cable TV, mini-bars, safes and spacious writing desks. The hotel is ideally situated at the Wangfujing Avenue district with easy access to major travel destinations. It also houses a wide variety of shops and boutiques, from local specialties to world-famous brands, and is said to be the sister street of the Champs-Elysees in Paris.

Delicious food is definitely indispensable during your stay at the Prime Hotel. The Emperor Restaurant can feast not only your tongue with the best Chinese food, but also your eyes with the phenomenal interior design that resembles an Imperial Dining Hall, richly appointed in the reds and golds of the Forbidden City with Phoenixes and Dragons winding their way around the pillars while Chinese court music plays live on stage. You can also choose the Japanese or French in-house restaurants, the Café Wangfujing that features international delicacies, or the Tang Ren Bar where you can enjoy the typical Chinese style decorations and beautiful antiques over a glass of wine. If you are used to working out, you can enjoy the spacious in-door swimming pool and the well-equipped health club, or otherwise pamper yourself with a relaxing massage in the Spa.

Now get ready for all the exciting places that our private English-speaking tour guides will take you to: The Great Wall, one of the wonders of the world; the magnificent Forbidden City, the largest and best preserved imperial palace complex in the world; the Tian'anmen Square, the largest city square in the world, the Ding Tomb, the Sacred Road, and many more. You will also have a taste of the authentic Beijing life and become acquainted with "Old Beijing" by exploring its teahouses, Hutong and Courtyard, tasting the famous Beijing Roast Duck, enjoying the Rickshaw ride and learning how to make Dumplings. For our Farewell Gala Dinner at the Tenggeli-Tala (Heavenly Grassland), you will enjoy an authentic Mongolian banquet with a splendid singing and dancing show.

You can also have some free time to discover by yourself other local attractions such as the temple fairs, antique markets, local concerts and performances, towering skyscrapers, amusement parks, libraries and museums, famous universities, shopping malls, pubs and clubs. Wherever you go, you will encounter smiling faces and many locals who will be delighted to speak English, especially now as the city and its people are preparing to host the 2008 Olympics. Beijing is also a wonderful "hub" if you decide to extend your visit to other cities and famous sites in China.

Registration Fees

Before January 15, 2007: $1,895
After January 15, 2007: $1,995
10 Hours of Continuing Education

Fee includes 5 nights bed & breakfast for 2 people in a double room, shuttle from and to airport, entrance fees and transportation to the scenic spots listed in the tour itinerary, lunch and dinner during tours, farewell gala dinner and show, service charges, government taxes, and China life tourist accident/casualty insurance.

Upgrade to deluxe/administrative room: add $100/$120 per person
 Upgrade to a Suite: add extra $325 per person
 Additional person (above 12 yrs) in room: add $370 per person
 A child (under 12) in parents' room, with/without extra bed: add $310/$165 per child

 Price does not include flights (please make your own flight reservations), airport tax, visa fees, excess baggage charge, sightseeing and meals not listed in the itinerary, personal expenses, gratuities and tips to guides, drivers, bellboys etc. For detailed itinerary please log-on to: www.uscdentalce.org*

• USC School of Dentistry Office of Continuing Education • Phone: 213.821.2127 • E-mail: cedental@usc.edu • Website: www.uscdentalce.org

Travel & Learn Program in Beijing, China - Registration Form

(For additional registration forms please xerox this page and send)

First Name _____ Last Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone () _____ Fax () _____

E-Mail _____

Mastercard Visa Check Enclosed

Card Number _____ Expiration Date _____

Total Payment _____ Signature _____

Names of others in your party (for children indicate age and total beds needed) _____

Type of Room _____ Double _____ Deluxe _____ Administrative _____ Suite

Additional Information (i.e. vegetarian) _____

USC School of Dentistry Travel and Learn Program

Beijing, China, April 1 - 6, 2007

Sunday, April 1, 2007: Arrival.

Transfer via international flights on your own arrangement.

Upon arrival at Beijing airport, our local representative will meet you and escort you to the Prime Hotel.

Monday, April 2, 2007

6:30 am – 10 am: Breakfast at the hotel

12 pm - 5 pm: Scientific Lectures

6 pm - 7 pm: Dinner on the tour

7 pm - 9 pm: Visit Lao She Tea House

Lao She Tea House is an exciting cultural place at Qianmen. It is named after the drama “Tea house” by the Chinese author Lao She. While sipping tea with light refreshment, you can enjoy a kaleidoscopic view of Beijing culture through wonderful short shows by comedians, singers, musicians, acrobats and opera performers on stage. There is also a display of paintings, art objects like paper cuttings, figurines, antiques, kites and jade carvings.

Tuesday, April 3, 2007

6:30 am - 9 am Breakfast at the hotel

9 am - 5 pm Tour to Hutongs, Courtyards, Tian’anmen Square and the Forbidden City

6 pm – 8 pm Dinner on the tour

After breakfast, you will visit the Hutongs by rickshaw. Hutongs are the old narrow paths with many courtyard homes where common people live. They are like villages within megalopolis and through the hutongs' teeming maze of alleyways, you will see the old houses and learn about the daily life of ordinary Beijing citizens. Lunch will be served at one of the local people's home during the tour, where you can learn how to make dumplings. In the afternoon, you will visit the historic Tiananmen Square and the magnificent Forbidden City in the afternoon. The Tian'anmen Square (Gate of Heavenly Peace) is the largest city square in the world and the spiritual heart of China, where the national flag is raised everyday exactly at sunrise. The Forbidden City is the largest and best preserved imperial palace complex in the world today. It used to be the imperial palace of the Ming and Qing dynasties with a history of around 600 years.

Wednesay, April 4, 2007

6:30 am - 9 am Breakfast at the hotel

9 am - 5 pm Tour to the Great Wall, Ding Tomb of Ming and the Sacred Road

6 pm – 8 pm Dinner on the tour

The Great Wall (Badaling section) is the most famous symbol of China and one of the world's most remarkable architectural wonders. The Badaling section is the most outstanding representation of China's Great Wall, located 70km northwest of Beijing, at an elevation of 1000 meters. This section was first built during the Ming Dynasty (1368-1644 AD) and heavily restored in the 1950s and 1980s. Standing at the strategic highest point from northwest of Beijing and giving access to every direction, Badaling section is the important pass for protecting Beijing City. The surrounding scenery is impressive.

The Ding Tomb is the burial site of the emperor Wanli, the 13th emperor of the Ming Dynasty who ruled for 48 years until his death in 1620. It is the only underground tomb of the thirteen Ming tombs of the emperors ever excavated. The Sacred Road is the path lined with stone statues of animals, mystical beasts and officials who meant to serve the emperor in his afterlife. This is where the sitting emperors would go to perform memorial rituals for the ancestors once a year. In the evening, you will enjoy a famous Peking Duck Banquet for dinner.

Thursday, April 5, 2007

6:30 am - 8 am: Breakfast

8 am - 1 pm: Scientific Lectures

1 pm - 6 pm: Free Time

6 pm - 9 pm: Dinner Show at Tenggeli-Tala

In the evening, you are invited to the Farewell Dinner at Tenggeli-Tala to enjoy a splendid Mongolian singing and dancing performance. Check detailed information of Tenggeli-Tala at <http://www.tala.com.cn/english/html/>

Friday, April 6, 2007

Enjoy your breakfast at the hotel. The rest of your day is free until our representatives escort you to the airport for your next flight. Service ends.

* There might be some changes in the itinerary schedule. A final itinerary will be provided to you upon arrival to the hotel.

*Fees include 5 night bed & breakfast for 2 people in a double room, shuttle from and to airport, entrance fees to the scenic spots listed in the tour itinerary and the transportation, lunch and dinner during tours, farewell gala dinner and show, service charges, government taxes, and China life tourist accident/casualty insurance.

* Price does not include flights (please make your own flight reservations), airport tax, visa fees, excess baggage charge, sightseeing and meals not listed in the itinerary, personal expenses, and gratuities, tips to guides, drivers, bellboys etc. Any question, please call 213-821-2127 or email cedental@usc.edu. Thank you.